

Farming types and landscape

Sheep farming on the hills in Scotland, Lake District, Pennines and North Wales.

Deer farming in hilly country with good grassland

Dairy farming, mainly in the west where plenty of rain falls and the grass is good quality small fields

Arable farming, mainly in the east of the country where it is drier and the soil is well fertilized

Market gardening in Cornwall warmer, more sunshine, early crops

Free range chickens on poor ground