W15669	10	9am	SITUATION. " The corps owing to the darkness were unable to get into the exact positions indicated to them and had concentrated most to the left where forming up for the attack this morning. They were also unable to start at ZERO (5.15 am), the right Coy started at 5.30 am. From verbal reports received it is evident that the attack went in a westerly direction, rather than a N-E one. The enemy have apparently anticipated a further advance on his position and was fully prepared to meet it. The right Coy met with very heavy H.Q. fire from its right flank and as they had lost the barrage had to withdraw. From further verbal reports it appears that the left Coy went too much to its left and the enemy counter attacked and apparently captured about 20 of them. Disposition " Coy on left with left resting on W11278 " 2 Coy on C Coy's right - right of D approx W11212 " 910461 then occupied LOWLAND SUPPORT trenches from them to W17689. 15 Aug 1st Lt Col R from right of 910461 to W18229.	57c 1/40000
